Common Threads 31st Annual Nominations Are Open!

The Common Threads Committee is pleased to announce that nominations are now being accepted for the 31st Annual Common Threads Awards, honoring women in agriculture. The Common Threads Award recognizes women with past or present roots in agriculture who have made remarkable and visible contributions to both the agricultural industry and their communities. Each year, recipients are selected from submitted nominations in recognition of their lasting impact through their careers, service, time, talent, or treasure.

Honorees will be recognized at a luncheon on Wednesday, March 10, 2027, at C.P.D.E.S. Hall, 172 West Jefferson Ave., Fresno, CA. Tickets and Sponsorships will be available once recipients are selected in mid-December.

Completed nomination packets, including a cover letter, must be received by the California Agricultural Leadership Foundation (CALF) office no later than midnight on Tuesday, December 1, 2027.
